She is a graduate of one of the best colleges in the country, and teaches, with other branches, vocal and instrumental music, drawing, painting and fancy work. Ample references will be given. Address, Editors of THE CLARION. -The Mite Society entertainment at the Methodist Parsonage on Wednesday night last netted quite an additional "mite" to the church building fund. The next entertainment will be held at Fair Lawn Institute on Friday night next, instead of Mr. John Patton's as at first announced. The programme prepared for the occasion will be specially interesting. One part-the crowning of the queens—in which about fifty child-ren appear, will be an especially magnificent scene. Let all come who can and we assure them a rich and elegant entertainment. -Died in Jackson, Miss., on Thursday
